Mr. Hochwitz,

My name is Ken Johnson and I am a patent attorney working with In-Situ Inc. to complete the filing a number of patent applications in U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. You indicated previously that you could not review the applications due to time constraints. Would you be willing now to review the applications and associated drawings? If so, we can transmit to you a copy of the application and drawings, as well as declaration and assignment documents for your execution upon completion of your review.

Please feel free to respond via email or call me at the number below. Thanks for your help.

Dr Henry:

I am unable to make a claim as to inventorship or not regarding the patent application without first reviewing the document. As I said in my previous e-mail, I have prior commitments at this time and am unable to review the documents in the time you have requested.
